

Precious “PK” Washington Officer Scholarship

$500

About The Scholarship

This scholarship is for graduating high school seniors who have been accepted and plan to attend my illustrious alma mater, Florida A&M University. The scholarship was created to further motivate and encourage students who have the desire and the drive to further their education and to provide additional financial assistance necessary to achieve this goal. Eligible candidates should possess impeccable leadership skills and be an active and positive member of their community.

History

Officer (Certified/Sworn) Precious K. Washington is a graduate of John I. Leonard High School. While in high school, she played Varsity Basketball, Track and Field and participated in the Science, Engineering, Communication, Mathematics, Enrichment (SECME) and Drug Abuse Resistance Education Programs. She was crowned Homecoming Queen her Senior year. Upon graduating from high school, she was the first of her siblings to attend college at Florida A&M University and graduated with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice. She went on to receive a commission in the United States Air Force and was stationed at Vandenberg Air Force Base in California. Upon earning an Honorable Discharge in 2005, Officer PK Washington received her State of Florida Certification in Law Enforcement and became a sworn Police Officer in 2008.
